HAPP Announces the Acquisition of ProSource Group

Elk Grove, IL, May 18, 2006 - HAPP is pleased to announce the acquisition of the ProSource Group, a worldwide distributor and manufacturer to the amusement and gaming industries. The ProSource Group product line consists of coin doors, ticket dispensers, speakers, custom harness assemblies and other related products. The combined company is the global leader in the manufacture and distribution of gaming and amusement parts and accessories, with nearly 400 employees in 14 locations serving customers in over 80 countries. Pfungsten Partners is the majority shareholder.

"This is another strategic move which will enhance our global leadership position in the gaming and amusement parts and accessories market," says Jim Norton, Managing Director of Pfungsten Partners and Chairman of Suzo-Happ Group. "The continued investment in our business is further evidence of our commitment to exceeding our customers expectations by providing value added solutions to the marketplace," added Tom Happ, President of Happ North America.

"Our success is the result of being responsive to the needs of the gaming and amusement market", noted Jeff Blair, President of ProSource. "Joining the Suzo Happ Group will enable ProSource to continue serving this market with additional resources provided by their worldwide manufacturing, distribution and service organization".
