

Pfingsten Closes Another Critical Power Services Add-on

Unified Power Acquires the UPS Division of LionHeart Power Systems, Inc.

Chicago, IL – November 10, 2015

Pfingsten Partners, L.L.C. (“Pfingsten”) announces that its portfolio company, Unified Power Holdings, L.L.C. (“Unified Power”), has acquired the UPS Division of LionHeart Power Systems, Inc. (“LionHeart”). LionHeart is an independent provider of services and parts for the uninterruptible power market, offering a full range of preventative and emergency maintenance, repair, testing and battery replacement services.

“The addition of LionHeart to the Unified Power family greatly strengthens our geographic presence in the Midwest” said Chris Roach, Unified Power’s CEO. “LionHeart provides an impressive customer base and a highly skilled group of field technicians.”

“LionHeart customers will enjoy Unified Power’s commitment to world-class service, factory-trained technicians and its national service footprint,” said Phillip Bronsteatter, Principal at Pfingsten. “We are excited about continuing to grow organically and through add-on acquisitions.”

This is Unified Power’s fourth strategic acquisition since Pfingsten became the majority shareholder in January 2011. The transaction is part of Pfingsten’s strategy to create a leading national, independent service provider for the critical power industry, offering a full range of preventative and emergency maintenance services, parts, batteries and associated critical power equipment.

The transaction was completed on October 30, 2015. To learn more about Unified Power, visit www.unifiedpowerusa.com.

About Pfingsten
