

Environmental Lights Expands Specialty LED Capabilities with City Theatrical

Chicago, IL – July 11, 2023

Pfingsten announces its portfolio company, Advanced Lighting Concepts, LLC d.b.a. Environmental Lights ("Environmental Lights") has acquired City Theatrical ("City"). Based in Carlstadt, New Jersey, City designs and manufactures LED lighting products, control technology and accessories for theatre, stage, TV, film and live event applications. City's products, including wireless DMX lighting controls, LED strip and accessories, spectrum analyzers, dimmers and beam control accessories, are trusted to shape and control lighting for leading global productions.

"We are thrilled to partner with City Theatrical," said Brad Tedder, CEO of Environmental Lights. "City's best-in-class lighting, lighting control electronics and mechanical accessories coupled with outstanding product development capabilities are highly complementary with our existing product portfolio and will deepen our expertise in the theatre, stage, TV, film and live event marketplace."

"Environmental Lights is a strong cultural and strategic fit for City," said Gary Fails, Founder and President of City Theatrical. "City's partnership with Environmental Lights will greatly benefit our mutual customers with additional products, resources and capabilities."

The transaction closed on June 30, 2023. To learn more about Environmental Lights and City Theatrical, please visit environmentallights.com and citytheatrical.com.
